

Memorial Book

In Loving Memory of

Kurt Carson Bishop

(August 15, 1986 - June 30, 2007)

Death is more universal than life, everyone dies but not everyone lives.

A. Sachs

This memorial website was created to remember our dearest Kurt Carson Bishop who was born in Rome, Georgia on August 15, 1986. Kurt was killed in a motorcycle accident on June 30, 2007. It is heart breaking. Kurt never knew what hit him. We always worried about someone pulling out in front of him but never thought about someone riding with him hitting him from behind. He will live forever in our memories and hearts.

We lost kurt to a Motorcycle Accident. What would Kurt have to say about this? "I died doing what I loved." When Kurt lost his Uncle Ricky to a motorcycle accident 4 years prior, he made sure to let EVERYONE know that, that's how he wanted to go out of the world. Doing something he loved and he loved being on a motorcycle. Something about being free on the open road, with scenery, the fresh air, everything as it is supposed to be.

It was also Kurt's wishes to be cremated and have the song "Simple Kind of Man" by Lynyrd Skynyrd play at his funeral. Those wishes are being granted today. They are making sure of it. Kurt always knew what he wanted and made sure that others knew it too. There would be no fear in his words telling you. He would just lay out, plain and simple!

The world has lost a terrific person. He was elated with his life. Had what he needed and that was all there was to it. He lived life to fullest possible extent and we can all take a note or two from the way Kurt lived his life! Happy & Content. I am sure that he is looking down on us from Heaven saying...

"I Did it My Way, I Went Out My Way."

We All Will Miss You Kurt Bishop!

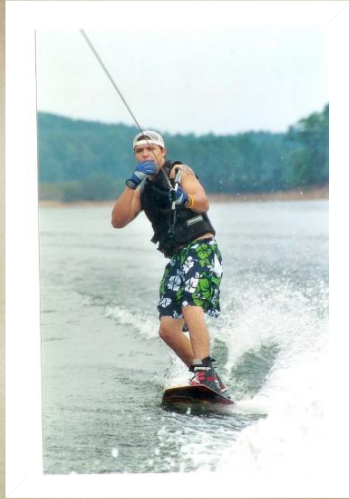

Don't Worry About Us!

Rest in God's Hands!

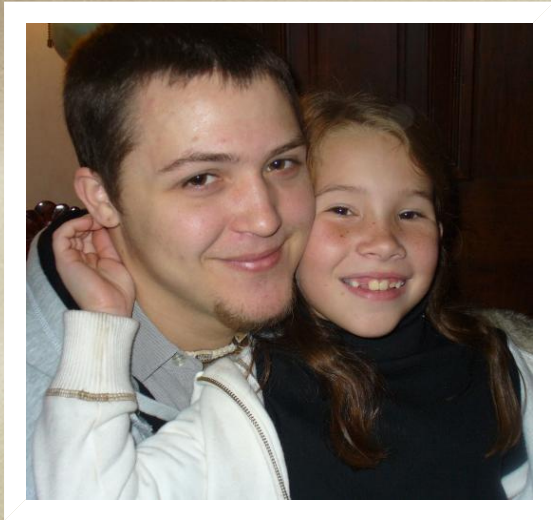

The background is a textured, mottled olive-green or taupe color. In the upper right quadrant, there are two roses. The one on the left is smaller and more tightly closed. The one on the right is larger and more open, showing more of its petals. Both roses are a similar muted green or greyish-green color, blending with the background. The word "Gallery" is written in a white, elegant script font, centered horizontally and partially overlapping the roses.

Sending my thoughts and prayers to the friends and family of Kurt. I read his story with such sadness in my heart. So many young people with far too much life left to live, leave us without warning and the void is unimaginable. I know that this Christmas will be very difficult for each of you. Creating this memorial will serve as a dose of "on line" therapy, or it least it has for me. Despite all of the meanness and violence in this world today, you will meet some of the kindest, most supportive people on the face of this earth via last memories. Also, there is a bereavement forum for parents who have lost a child sponsored by last memories. It is quite helpful as well.

Our son, Andrew, died of head injuries sustained when he was ejected from his car on July 12th, 2005. He remained on life support until July 16th, 2005 at which time, we kissed him goodbye and donated his organs, as had been his wish. Please visit Andrew's site if you feel that you can or wish to. Again, you are all in my thoughts and prayers. <http://andrew-collins.last-memories.com>

I'm sorry

August 15, 2007

I recently lost a close friend Andrew, who was killed in a motorcycle accident as well. He was 22 and one of the happiest people I have ever met. I am sorry for your loss, it's a hard pain to deal with. May God help you stay strong.

your smiling face

August 6, 2007

My prayers go out to the Bishop family..Lynn,Ralph,Rusty, and Misty.i cannot even begin to imagine what you are going through at this time..It still seems unreal to me and im still in shock..he was so young and full of life..its hard to believe that he is gone....For all of those who knew Kurt..you know that there was never a dull moment when you were with him...he was always up to something with that quirky little smile on his face...his smile is what made him!! i know that some of the best laughs i've had, kurt had something to do with it..he was a great guy and friend...he tried teaching me how to play the guitar several times, but i could never get it..i just enjoyed listening to him play..he made it look soo easy!!he never gave up on me learning though..i'm going to miss him..but i know that he is in a better place now..everything happens for a reason...im not sure what this reason was ...but i know i will see you again one day KURT....your spirit will forever live in those lives you have touched..and you touched SOO many including myself.you will be missed soo much...until we meet again..i love and miss you...you will be in our hearts forever!!!! When i get up in heaven with you, you will have to teach me how to play the guitar again!!

Prayers for and with you...

July 11, 2007

Hey Guys! I am so sorry to hear about the loss of Kurt. I just got back from being on my honeymoon to read the news. I love you all, and my wife and I are praying for you all. He will be truly missed! God bless you!

Yours in Christ,

AMAZING GRACE

July 7, 2007

DEAR RALPH, LYNN AND ALL THE FAMILY. WORDS CAN NOT EXPRESS MY DEEPEST SORROW FOR YOUR LOSS. THE LAWS OF NATURE TELL US THE PARENTS SHOULD GO FIRST!!!! I KNOW THAT YOUR HEARTS ARE BREAKING, BUT GOD'S GRACE IS SUFFICIENT.

I AM PRAYING THAT HE WILL LIFT YOU UP IN HIS MIGHTY HANDS AND GIVE YOU GRACE FOR EACH DAY. JUST KNOW WE LOVE YOU ALL AND YOU ARE ALL IN OUR PRAYERS.

GOD BLESS, SHARON AND JC

In my prayers

July 5, 2007

To the Bishop Family, I am so sorry for your loss I cant imagine the pain you must feel. I have 2 children and couldnt imagine losing one. i just wanted you all to know that we are praying for your family even my 3 year old will ask to say a prayer for yall at night. be proud that kurt touched so many lives in 20 years than most people touch in their 80 years on this earth.

To kurts closest friends you are all in my prayers losing a friend is very hard and especially when you are as close as kurt was with all his friends the pain will last forever i wont lie. just keep his memory alive! he loved each of you so much and he will forever be an angel on your shoulder. He can see everything you do ,hehe, i just can imagine when we all get to heaven and he has a list of jokes and pranks to do on everyone because he can now see EVERYTHING we do!!! you no longer have secrets!!! yall keep close together and help each other through this.....And be sure to still go to the bishop house and visit them...they will miss your presence and it might help them cope...yall becareful out there and i want to see all your tats when you get them done!!!

Forever Broken Hearted

July 5, 2007

To all of Kurt's Family and everyone who loved him: Just about all of Kurt's family knows me and knows how close me and Kurt were. Exspecially Ralph, Lynn, Rusty and Misty. I love every single one of you! All of you know Kurt was my best friend and the one person who I looked up to and tried to be like as much as I coule in life. From the way he lived to that lil' grin he had that would light up any room no matter how dark and sad. There are too many memories for me to list but all of you know all of them. Every night I cry myself to sleep thinking of Kurt and wake up wanting to cry because I have to remember that he's gone. If there was anything I could do to bring him back I would do it in a heart beat. We will never know why God decided to take Kurt from us but we can only pray and know that he is in a better place and let him know we will see him one day. For he knows that better than all of us and we all know Kurt is smiling down and saving us all a spot in heaven beside him and Uncle Ricky. I know we all think motorcycles are to blame but we must also remember that Kurt loved them and he would hate it if we stopped riding. I can't get rid of my bike because I know he would be pissed if I did just because of what happend. I know Kurt was doing what he loved and that was riding. He didn't die in his sleep or riding in a car. But he died doing what he loved and that is what we need to remember. I love Kurt with all my heart and soul and I can't wait to see him again in heaven one day! If ya'll ever need anything from me just let me know and you will get it. I will see you all soon enough. Kurt, I know you can hear me, I want you to know I love you man and I know you're watching over me everyday and I know everytime I go ride I can feel you with me. So let's ride.

To the Bishop's and the Drake's and you too Deb:) I can not imagine the amount pain you all must be feeling losing a son, brother, brother-in-law, or uncle to whom you were all VERY close too. For as long as I have known all of you I have loved you all and it breaks my heart that this has happened to such a GREAT family. Kurt was such a loveable person and I know you were all so touched to see how many people HE touched:) Just always remember that Kurt is with each and every one of you and Saturday you gained a guardian angel. Also, keep smiles on your faces because that's what he would want you all to do:) Be proud because your son, brother, brother-in-law, uncle was one of a kind and touched many lives and he is going to be missed!

Sweet Kurt

July 3, 2007

We both grew up with Kurt. For Jason, Kurt was his friend's little brother, and the "bat boy" of their little league team (bat boy because he was too small to play). I grew up with Kurt as the baby of our class. There are tons of memories I have of Kurt since we were about 12, not one of them dry or boring. For those of you who did not know him...you really missed out. You couldn't ask for a better person. He always knew how to have fun and bring a smile into any situation. It is still a shock to me that this happened. To his "close" friends, this will be something to mourn about for the rest of your lives. It is a true tragedy. Of course, Kurt would not want it to be this way. Kurt would want everyone to be happy, not sad. Seeing him yesterday he looked exactly the same as he did the last time I saw him, a slight smirk on his face like he was about to bust out laughing at you. Sweet Kurt will be greatly missed. My condolences go out to Lynn, Ralph, Rusty and Misty. There is an old saying that brings him to mind....the good die young. I Love You Kurt!

Soldier in heaven

my prayers got out to Kurts family... i know that this is something that has hit you so suddenly.. but in your words i know that you have such a great amount of strength.. i did not know him but by the words and pictures he seemed as he was such a wonderful person... well i sit here in jealousy but because about now he has met my husband Sergio... i know those guys up there are creating a ruccus together... my husband had such a big heart but he himself was a "Simple Man"... well the angels have a thing coming to them... cause these chosen Soldiers God has requested for dont settle for the least they want it all... and that i know most of all is why "YOUR KURT" stands beside "MY SERGIO".... "Get it all Boys cause there is not stopping you now..." Kurt, watch over your family and continue to guide them i all they do..." and "Sergio, stand strong by Kurt cause the special ones come a dime a dozen"" and Kurt was a special one and you will see that now Sergio.... love you always..... Kurt's family stay strong and remember he would want you to smile SO SMILE...

Ride On...

July 3, 2007

I didn't know you but I just wanted to wish you a hell of a ride in your next life, kid. You went out doin what you loved to do and not many people have that privledge. You lost life @ a terribly young but you also gained your wings. Watch over your loved ones. They need you now more than ever.

God Bless You and maybe we'll meet in another life time.

And to Kurt's family:

Hang in there. This is probably one of the hardest things you've had to deal with I'm sure, but keep your head up and there will be sunshine at the end of this..

He's smiling down on you now sayin "Thanks for everything"

I Carry Your Heart With Me

I carry your heart with me (i carry it in my heart)

I am never without it (anywhere I go you go, my dear;

and whatever is done by only me is your doing, my darling)

I fear no fate (for you are my fate, my sweet)

I want no world (for beautiful you are my world, my true) and it's you are whatever a moon has always meant and whatever a sun will always sing is you

Here is the deepest secret nobody knows

(here is the root of the root and the bud of the bud and the sky of the sky of a tree called life; which grows higher than the soul can hope or mind can hide)

and this is the wonder that's keeping the stars apart

I carry your heart (i carry it in my heart)

E. E. Cummings

The background is a textured, mottled olive-green or taupe color. In the upper center, there are two roses. The one on the right is larger and more open, while the one on the left is smaller and more tightly closed. Both roses are rendered in a light, almost white tone, making them stand out against the darker, textured background. The overall mood is nostalgic and elegant.

Kurt, i thought bout you alot last nite. i had a breakdown and couldnt stop crying! its so hard and so wierd that it hits you like a ton of bricks. I just wanted to pick up the phone and talk to you. All i want to hear is that sweet voice!! i miss you so much and its been what almost 9 months!! it never gets easier!!!! I love you and miss you so much!! you better believe im gonna have something at my wedding to remind me of you!! :) Just watch over me and make sure everything goes good :) Lol! love u kurt!! MIss you even more!

Heather Bice

I LOVE YOU KURT CARSON!

You know with each day that passes by, I pray to god I'll never forget who you are.
You mean everything to me.
I love you

Ooooh Ooooh
Ooh I pray

You were in my dream
Before I even knew that there was a you and me,
Now I can't wait to see your smile,
When I wake up each day,
It makes it worth while
With the kinda love you plant inside,

Specially with a heart so empty as mine.
All your soft tenderness is the one thing that I don't wanna miss.

[Chorus:]

I pray,
When it's time for me to say goodbye
I'll never forget looking in your eyes,
I pray,
That I feel your touch
And that God doesn't forget our love,
I pray,
When I close my eyes,
I can still see visions of you on my mind.
I pray,
That I see you in another life,
I pray that you still by my side.
Oh I pray.

Everything that you give to me,
Only comes in a fantasy,
It seems like life goes by so fast,
But in this time I wanna make it last. (I pray)
I hate that we live to die,
But only God knows why (I pray)
We all have a purpose,
And to see you again it'll be worth it.

[Chorus]

[Slow rap:]

I wish that I could stop time,
I wish that I could rewind,
To the very begining of every second of my life.

To ask God on my hands and knees,
To never let me forget all my special memories.
See I'm only promised today,
And if it's my time to go,
I don't want the love of my life to ever fade away,
So one last time
Let me open my eyes.
To see what my life used to be like.
Oh God.

HAPPY NEW YEAR KURT! U know that i celebrated it with u! I drank one for ya!! i just sat there and cried for a couple of minutes cause i know that this new year is goin to be so rough without you! I found a new song its called goodbye my lover goodbye my friend. i listened to it last nite and just thought about you! I LOVE YOU SO MUCH!! watch over us! I MISS YOU

Shannon Mullinax

Kurt, I read everything that has been left for you everyday! And I agree I would give my life for yours in a heartbeat! I know you are not my true brother but you were like my other brother by a family I love dearly! We miss you so much! It will never get easier losing you! You are an amazing person! Look over us all at this time of year b/c I know you are watching over us...it's just hard not being able to see that smile! I know you don't want us to be sad but again it's hard! You were always there for Dusty and if you knew something was wrong with me you were there side by side! I showed Lynn and Ralph the book i made for Dusty and they loved it! I plan on making one for them too when I can! You know that! I don't think sometimes we will get over the lose of you! We love you so much! I pray everyday that everything will get easier but each day I wake up with you still not here! Just look over and protect us! We will see you again one day soon! Till then my other brother I love you and keep making those bikes and keeping on keeping on that track of teachin us all how to play the guitar like you! I love you....see you soon! Love, Shannon (your other sister frome another mother)

Little Brother,

As I sit here and try to prepare myself mentally for the holidays I just cry. I think about how you loved the family all getting together and how we would tell stories and laugh. I just never thought we would be doing this without you. I am at a loss for words when it comes to describing the pain. I feel so numb, so lost. I look around and keep waiting for you to come around the corner or come bouncing in the door. I look at pictures and am still in disbelief. I look at Mom and Ralph and see the constant pain in their eyes.

They are so lost without you. The pain we all feel is nothing compared to the pain they suffer on a constant basis. Mom and Ralph have always loved us more than anything. They have always been there for us and loved us unconditionally. I never knew that kind of love until I had children of my own. A parent would die without question for their children. They would give their life for us and would have given their life for yours that day. I would have given mine for yours in a heart beat. Since you and Rusty were little I have loved you both as a sister but also as a second Mom. I treated you both like my babies and love you both more than you could even imagine. I hope you always knew that. I loved you for you. I loved that that you always smiled, that you loved your family and friends unconditionally, that you lived every day to the fullest, that when you walked in a room it got brighter as did everyone sitting there, that you always made me smile, that you always made light of the serious situations, that you could do anything you put your mind to, that you were precious, that you were the best little brother, that you kept us on the edge of our seats, that you were beautiful on the inside and on the outside, that you were simple in your wants, that you were funny, that you took after Ralph in your story telling, that you took after Mom in your people skills 😊, that you were just simply "wonderful"!! The other night we were getting ready to go eat at our usual family friday restaurant and Sophie came to me and said "Mommy Kurty is going tonight". It caught me off guard and I replied, "no baby he won't be able to go tonight." She said with such certainty, "yes Mommy he is going to eat with us tonight." Then she said, "Mommy you are sad, you just want Kurty to open his eyes again don't you." Maybe you did go, maybe you were there with us. I love you with all my heart to my dying day!!! Please don't ever forget all the love that remains for you here on this earth. Love Always, you big sister, Misty

Kurt, Its so hard to believe that its been 5 months today. It was weird cause i didnt even think bout it but me and your mama went and ate on ur 5 month anniversary. very strange!! I love your mama and shes the sweetest woman! keep sending her those signs! it helps her out!! We went and seen your brick and im goin tomorrow to see the crash site. I havent been yet and its been 5 months. It should be a lil easier to get through the days since its been so long but for some reason its gettin harder. i just think bout how im going to see you one sweet day and that makes me feel a lil better. Thanks for that dream the other nite! i know you were there! Just keep lookin after your family and dont quit sending those signs! I love you and miss you so much!! Not a day goes by that i dont think of yoU!

Cole Spears

Hey man, guess I'm late on all of this but I know you won't mind, guess I couldn't really find the words but here it goes anyway.....

Well there's not a day that has gone by since you went home that I havn't thought of you and your family. My memories of you are all around me, from when I'm driving my Jeep, to when I'm watching a football game or playing songs on my guitar and even going to church. You are all around me. We had alot of fun through the years and some of the best memories of us are from our younger years. Like when we where in middle school and I stayed at your house the whole spring break and we would go do flips off your trampoline into your swimming pool and stay up all night or went we where in high school and we accidentally bought the same kind of shoes two times in a row and everybody though we were copying each other, that was funny. We had a blast, I wish we could go back. But I know we can't and I miss ya and I'll always remember ya, especially went I'm ridin in my jeep, with the top down, jammin to Skynyrd and wishin' you could be there with me, but I know in my heart you are. So I love ya man!

Shannon Mullinax

Hi sweetie! Again I can't explain how much we all miss you! Some days it's easier but there are more days filled with pain! I don't think I can explain the pain we all feel without you being here especially for the holidays! I agree with everything Dusty has said to and about you! I feel like I have lost a brother! We go by and talk to your family as much as we can but I'm sure you see that from heaven and it puts that amazing smile on your face! I just wanted to say hi and I miss you terribly! Just look over all of us and keep us safe b/c I know how you are you would never let anything bad happen to anyone that you love! Again I miss & love you so much!

Heather Bice

Hey hun, i was just thinkin bout you and wanted to tell ya that i love you and miss you! i dont think i could say that enough! I got my tattoo! its not quite finished yet. i know u love those nautical stars lol! so i got 4 nautical stars for the 4 letters in your first name and 6 negative space stars for the 6 letters of your last namE! with some gray wash behind it! i love it! i think bout you everytime i look at it! this is my all time favorite tattoo!! it will be colored in red and i got to think of some cute color for the negative space stars! my gah i wish i could just touch your face one more time!! i still have 2 voicemails from like february just so i can hear your voice. puts me in a better mood! anyways! i love you and miss you kurt and you will forever be in my heart! no one could ever and will never take your place!!
MWAH!

Dusty Mullinax

Well man, what can I say..... I still miss u so much man! I still wake up everyday wondering why, why did u have to leave? Honestly Kurt you were my BEST FRIEND, you were everything I had, the only person I truely looked at as a brother and a friend. You had my back NO MATTER WHAT! Ever since I moved to Atlanta man it's been so hard. First you leave this world then a bunch of other stuff with my family is going on. Crazy stuff man. Then in the midst of all that I am trying to stay focused and do good in school and do good at my new job and yet I still seem to get depressed when I think of you. I just can seem to come to grips with reality. I just cant do it. I just dont see how or why? Of course its not my place to get those answers, its only God's place to know those answers. I know eventually one day that I will see you and be chillin with you again but man until that day comes I think of you everyday and the pain is still as real as its ever been! I am just thankful that you came to my aparment the weekend before your accident and I am super glad you got to stay and we could chill and talk and catch up on some stuff man. I think in a weird way that was God's way of letting us hang out together one more time. Because God knew I would be busy living down here trying to better myself and he knew when he was going to take you away. I just thank God so much for that. Oh! I almost forgot too man, I finally have the design and the drawing done for the tattoo I am getting for u! It's gunna be so sick and your gunna love it. I have spent the past couple of months designing and drawing to figure out the PERFECT tattoo piece in memory of u man. People ask me why am I getting that and stuff and for someone who wasnt even related to me. You know what I say to those people? HE WAS MY BROTHER! Maybe not my biological brother but damn it Kurt you were the closest I will ever get to having a true brother. Also, man you remember all those times we use to talk about me starting my own clothing company and stuff? Well dont you worry about that either man, I have the most PERFECT name and logo for it and I know your gunna love it as well! I know everyone is gunna love the stuff I make and I will be sure to let everyone know my number one inspiration behind it all is you. I truely dont think anyone in this world or in this lifetime will ever realize exactly how much u impacted my life. Before I met you man I was afraid of getting a tattoo, I was afraid of doing extreme sports like motocross, snowboarding, wakeboarding, all kinds of crazy stuff YOU got me into! You are the reason I am who I am today. I love tattoos and they're one of my biggest passions man. The only thing that hurts about tattooing is knowing your not gunna be my first customer when I start tattooing! It hurts so bad because we always talked about me tattooing you and you were the only person I knew crazy enough to let me tattoo them. Actually it isnt that your crazy its just the simple fact that you had faith in me and you trusted me and you know I wouldnt mess you up. I know it's been a little while since I have gotten on here and written you man and I am so sorry for that. I never want you or any of your family to think I have forgot about you or them. I could never forget any of yall and exspecially you! You will always be in my heart man, please I pray that you always watch over me and bless me Kurt, make sure you put in a good word to God for me so I'll get some good blessings from him too! Haha, jk. Love you bro!

Cassie Camp

Last Night I had a dream...it was so real...Kurt was in it and it was after the accident and he had been allowed to come back to earth and tell everyone about heaven and how great it was and he was to bring his "lost" friends and family to christ in his journey while he was here. Kurt spent most the the time with his close family and friends Everyone was just cutting up like we were all kids playing hide and seek and all kinds of silly things. Well right before it was time for him to return to the lord Kurt got serious and everyone gathered around to hear what he had to say. He described Heaven as a BEAUTIFUL place full of laughter no one ever had a disagreement. He said that the gates of Heaven were more than words could ever describe. He kept on about his "lost" friends who didnt know christ that he wanted them to go to church and know him like he did now. He wants to spend eternity with all of us so he said its very important that we all know Christ. He brushed his mamas hair back on her shoulder and gave her a kiss on the cheek and said mama keep being strong i love you and i dont like to see you so upset but i understand it. He shook his daddys hand and said its ok to cry but please just know im safe and im looking out for you out there. I know this is a dream but oh my gosh it was so real to me...i woke myself up one time because i thought it was so real and when i went back to sleep i dreamed it again right where i left off...i just wanted to share this with all of you. i think its some sort of message. I hope you all get this same dream because it was so awesome. I wasnt going to even mention it to anyone but it has been on my mind all day so i thought I must be supossed to share it. I hope this helps some of you like it has helped me. I know Kurt and I were no where near close as most of you but we all love Kurt how could you not. Lynna nd Ralph it was so good to see you at the fair. I pray for you all daily...

Well KURT its been almost 3 months now..too long...i hope you had a good 21st Birthday!! Knowing you, you did!! You have been on my mind here lately! Like Dusty said ive gotten alot closer to God too..i drifted far away there for awhile, but with your accident and some other things going on in my life i realized that i cant do anything without God..i wish you were here to make me laugh again, i really need it right now. Things have been rough here lately!I miss everyone hanging out like we all use too..it seems as if everyone is drifting apart instead of together..i dont know whats happening..maybe things will change for the better.i pray that God will bring us all close again.. i know you are watching over us too..We all Miss you very much..i wish you could come see us all for just a minute, i know that would make everyone soo happy! i know you are having a blast up there in heaven!! Keep Smiling Down on Us Kurt! LOVE and MiSS you~

You never said "I'm leaving"
You never said "good-bye"
You were gone before we knew it
And only God knows why
A million times we've needed you,
A million times we've cried.
If love alone could've saved you,
you never would have died.
In life we loved you dearly,
in death we love you still.
In our hearts you hold a place,
No one else will ever fill.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
but you didn't go alone.
Part of us went with you;
the day God took you home

Well like everyone else is saying. It's already been a month. The hardest month I have ever had to cope with in my life. Kurt, you knew me better than anyone I have ever been friends with. You were always there for me and I miss you so damn much man. There's not a day that goes by that I still don't cry. I have never in my life had my heart broken, never thought it would happen, but now instead of just being broken my heart is crushed. You were everything to me man. I don't think you or anyone else will ever realize how much of an inspiration and a role model you were to me. I tried to live life to the fullest while you did. I tried to not care what the world thought of me when you could care less. I tried not to worry about the little things in life and you don't even know what the word "worry" means. Haha, there's times through the day that I put in one of my Breaking Benjamin CDs and all I think about is you. You were the one who got me to listening to them and you know better than anyone they are my favorite band. Everytime I hear one of their songs I start to smile and think of the good times we had, then before I know it I am crying again thinking why it had to be you that left this world? Why did it have to be my best friend? Why did it have to be the one person I could truly be myself and not have to worry about what you thought because you were my true friend? Why? That's the question on everyone's mind right now. Of all people in the world this could have happened to, it had to be you. I know God works in mysterious ways and I know everything happens for a reason but I can not begin to understand God's reason for taking you from everyone who loved you. I know it's not my place to understand but just have faith, but when you lose the one person you truly looked up to it's hard to not wonder why. Kurt, I haven't cried over anything, ANYTHING, in the past 3 years. Out of all the broken bones, cuts, and scares I never cried once. But for the past month I have cried enough to fill those 3 years and many more. I know I sound like a baby right now but I can't help it. There's not many people in the world I trust and much less love with all my heart, but Kurt you were one of the few. I remember the last time I saw you and got to hang out with you. We went on that long ride from Rome to my apt. in Atlanta. It was so much fun and so peaceful. We had an awesome talk that night you spent the night with me at my place and if I had known that would be the last time I would ever get to see you I would have told you how much I loved you and how much you mean to me. I remember my first tattoo I got you were so psyched about it. From the time you got your first tattoo I wanted one. Hell we were almost there with our full sleeves. Haha, I know your mom and mine would kill us but after losing you I realize life is too short to care what anyone thinks and you should enjoy what life you have. So man you know I'm gunna go all the way with full sleeves on both arms (as soon as I get the money) haha. Oh and don't worry man I saved my whole left side just for you. I have the perfect design that I am still working on drawing but after I get the money and time to do it, it will be one of the most amazing tattoos you will ever see. My whole side is dedicated to you bro. and I can't wait for you to see it. I know you're gunna be smiling down from heaven watching me get it but when it's done, it will be awesome. All I want in life right now is to see you man. I just want to see you one more time and tell you how much you mean to me and how much I miss you. You are my brother and don't you or anyone else ever forget that. I will drop by some time soon to write you something else man, don't worry I will NEVER forget about you. NEVER! Everyday I think of you and pray that you watch over me through out the day. I do have you to thank though for one thing, since you have passed and are no longer with us I have gotten closer to God and started praying more and believing more. I have you to thank for that. There's so much to say but so little time. I talk to you everynight and everyday but it feels good to write to you. You are an amazing person and there will forever be a piece of my heart missing until I get to see you again in heaven one day. I love you man and I pray you watch over me and keep me out of trouble. I'll talk to you later bro. I love ya man and will forever miss you.

Well, its been a month and I have read all the sweet things people had to say about you and I have just thought and thought about how you touched so many people. You had so many friends. At the funeral home, we stood in line over 2 hours. There were so many people whose life you had touched and I know that makes your family proud. Just sitting here, I thought about the first real memory I have of you and it was at your birthday party many years ago. That was the first time and last time I had ever been around a pinata...I remember J.R. Green was one of the attendants because he had gone to school with Leah. Then that time you came up to mama and daddys and got that sweet lil brown lab i had...and then at the hospital in November when my brother in law had a minor accident and you just came up and hugged me and that sweet lil grin that just made you who you are. I just saw your family in Florida, they sat right beside me, I just kept lookin around waiting for you to pop around the corner and say "HEY!" I miss you and I never really saw you that much but lordy when I did...it was always such a pleasure. I know that your family misses you more than they ever imagined they would! You had such an impact on the lives that you touched. I am just glad to say that you touched mine more than your family will ever know. I just wanted you to know that it was more that a pleasure to have known you in this lifetime, but ill see you on the other side...

until we meet again,

Kurt I don't really know what to say man....you always know how to make someone smile...i remember when me and you where in mrs. rush's class in first grade. I will never forget when you and Eric used to sneak up to my house when you and him where at his dads that was so funny...and the movies we all went to...and lol high school when you used to kid around with me about everything..you are so awesome...and i will never forget you...can't wait to see you in heaven save me a spot !!!! :) love ya man

Misty Drake (Sister)

Kurty,

Every moment with you was a memory. I try to remember everyone everyday. Not having you here on this earth is a pain that just can not be expressed in words. You were you - unique and true to yourself. I wish we all had the guts to do what you did in the short 20 years we had you. Live and live the way you wanted. You never worried about what anyone thought and I think that is why you had so many friends and touched so many lives. You lived the way you wanted to and let others do the same. You never judged anyone. I can remember one of the last things you said to me - "but did you have fun?" I had rode with you on your motorcycle and of course you scared me to death and you loved it! I would not take anything for that ride because it allowed me to share in something that you loved. I guess had I known what I know now I would have hijacked the thing and run it off a cliff. I always worried about you but never thought this. When I think of you now I think of that award winning smile of yours. It and you lit up every room you ever entered. You had an amazing presence that made people love being around you. Not to mention that you could do just about anything. Even when you were very young probably 8 or 9 we all went to you when something needed to be fixed. You did an amazing job helping us with our house. Everytime I walk on the slate in the kitchen I think of you and everytime I look at the dining room ceiling I smile and think of you. You were so proud of that ceiling and you did an amazing job! You were an amazing person and your sweet spirit, bright smile, warm hugs, and kisses on the cheek will be missed more than I could ever possibly express. My heart has a void and often physically aches and then I remind myself of what you would say if you knew. You would say "Misty no worries its cool I am fine you need to smile!" I just miss you little brother. I imagine what a handsome Angel you are and I wonder what you are building or what kind of motorcycle you are riding up in Heaven. I am sure you are building the house you always dreamed of and you are on a Harley that would make a grown man drool. I will cherish and hold close to my heart every memory I have of you and will continue to share with you nieces that love you so much! I love you and will miss you always and forever!!! Love Misty

Hey, Kurt. Seeing less and less of you lately didn't mean I was thinking less and less about you. You've always had unique position in my life. I remember the first time we ever spoke to each other. It was at a high school football game. You were in eighth grade, I was in sixth, and you were trying so hard to convince me that I'd said something offensive to your cousin, and then put on that grin of yours...that defining factor that let us know you were you. Anyway, you patted me on the shoulder and admitted you were just trying to get someone riled up, then asked if I wanted to toss a football around beside the bleachers. From then on, that's how we communicated...running after the guy carrying the football trying to knock each other into the dirt before the football could get tossed up and away...you know the game.

I wasn't a very personable kid, but you didn't care. If we had a good time, I was alright in your book. My appreciation for you became even stronger in high school when you helped me come off as a "one cool dude" to the upper classmen. You were the first to really put some confidence into me, and I feel I'll always owe my accomplishments in part to you.

I wrote a song for you and I play it on my guitar almost every time I pick it up these days. My hope is that you'll receive the message, and that the tune fits your personality. I think it does, or it wouldn't have come so easily to me.

You're a good soul.

"Ol' Red"

Dusty Mullinax

Dear Kurt: How's it goin up in heaven lil' buddy? Haha, I know you're chillin, probably playin those guitars of yours and ridin that harley you always dreamed of with Uncle Ricky. Man let me tell you, words cannot explain the pain I feel. I don't know what to do exactly or what to think. You were everything to me. I know it sounds kinda cheesy but man you'll never know how much I looked up to you. Out of every person I've ever been friends with you are the one who has shaped me, changed me, and sure as hell influenced me to do good and to do some crazy shit! Haha. All good things must come to an end though, but I didn't think the end would come this soon. I don't understand or can see why God had to take you from this world so soon. For the past couple of nights since you died you watched me cry myself to sleep. I haven't cried in 2 years. Of all the broken bones, cuts and bumps I've ever had, I haven't cried in the past 2 years and the day you died it all came out. Every morning I wake up now thinking my best friend is gone. The one person who knew me better than anybody. It's the most painful thing to wake up and think of you. Yet again, it's the funniest because I think of all the stupid shit we've done together! Every time I am riding my bike now I can feel you with me, I can feel you riding beside me. I use to be scared to go out riding on my bike but now I'm not because I know you're watching over me and riding with me. We have some good talks while riding and God knows I think of you all the time. There's been numerous times where I've wanted to just pick up the phone and talk to you. But then I realize you're gone and all I have to do is talk and you can hear me. I don't think I'll ever get over the fact that you're gone but I will have to learn to. I know this is a memories spot on your website but this is probably one of the only spots I can really type everything I want without having a typing limit, haha. Oh, and you gotta get off my back about speeding up on my bike haha! The whole way down to Atlanta that day you kept saying speed up, speed up, but you know what man... I'll leave that up to you! I know alot of people are selling their bikes because of what happend but man will you please tell them not to. Everytime I think of selling my bike I can hear you calling me a pussy in the back of my head haha. So trust me bro. I'll NEVER get rid of my bike! I'll always keep my bike in memory of you! Besides without my bike we wouldn't be able to ride together and have those long talks while we ride man. I'm sure you'll agree with me that there are too many memories of us to put on this page. Oh, and what can I say about tattoos!? You are 95% of the reason why I got hooked on tattoos! We always said we would get tatted up and trust me I'm going to continue to get tatted! Don't worry man, one BIG piece will be for you! You'll see it when I get it because you'll be watching me get it, but just wait till I have it drawn up you're gunna love it man. I don't really know what else to say man. My heart is broken, my best friend is gone to heaven and I can't see you again until my day comes. I know God has a plan for all of us and I know my days are numbered. But do me a favor man, give me a warning when my day is near! Haha, I love you with all my heart and soul man and if there was anything I could do to bring you back I would! Unfortunately God doesn't bargain. So have fun in heaven man, ride that harley and play those guitars because I can hear you man, I can hear every bit of sweet music you're playing! I love you man!

Kurt i still cant believe you are gone! i will never forget when you came at talked to me at Smitty and Elys for the first time..you were always trying to sweet talk :o) i remember when we went on a date to the movies with eric and abby..then went back to your house to hang out and watch a movie..when i was leaving i was trying to be quiet not to wake your parents up and i ended up rolling down the stairs in your house..it made such a loud noise..all i saw was you runnin down after me yelling" OMG are you okay, i know that had to hurt" and you laughed at me and made fun..but i was laughing too..then your mom came in there and checked to see if i was okay..how embarassing..i had bruises for weeks...or the time you lit angie's hair on fire.she said "kurt did you light my hair on fire" you said "what" angie was like " KURT I HAVE hairspray in my hair" and you said "WELL YOU DIDNT TELL ME THAT" angie was like "I DIDNT KNOW I WAS SUPPOSE TOO"..hahah.yall went on forever about that..u had on a camo shirt, ripped jeans and these big huge brown boots that were unlaced and just hanging on your feet..we all said you looked like you came out of the woods...and the same night you sat on Ely's laundry basket and broke it..and all you did was laugh and kept sitting on it and it broke even more..Ely got a lil mad and told you to quit sittin there but u just kept laughin and acting goofy...or how bout on new years when you got soo mad and ripped your shirt off..hahah..so many great times...and great laughs...i will miss you..i love you...

Man i'll tell you what i'll never forget. The time me,you,eric,and segraves drove to the old gsd buildings with a case a beer. You kept running up and to the door trying to bust it down and finally i just elbowed it in. Then we started walking through there and it was all dark, so we started lighting small fires to see our way through and drinking beer as we went. Then we got to the end and made a little fire in this room and walked out, and all of a sudden we started seeing all this smoke coming from that room and some of the fire had blown on to the wood on the wall and we started trying to put it out and then ran out of there trying to pick up our beer cans and get the hell out of there. Man we thought we had done caught it on fire. Man, the good times. Well, i'll keep representing for you and you do the same for me.You'll never be forgotten. much love, Adam

ashley bice

It doesn't seem right that you aren't with us anymore. I just sit and thought about all the crazy fun times that we had in the ER. The one that stands out the most is when I asked you to go down to the cafeteria to get me TWO pieces of cinnamon toast..and of course you were happy to do it. Then you came back with just one piece and I asked where my toast was, and you said " I ate it on the way down here." I thought that was so funny!! And then how can we forget the time that you broke your ankle and couldn't transport the patients and I had to teach you how to do secretary...You did an AWESOME Job! You caught on very fast :) I could tell that you had enough when you decided to cut your cast off so you wouldn't have to sit there anymore! haha!! U were always being a daredevil in some way..I remember when you jumped off Smitty's house into the back of Mark's truck, you scared the crap out of me. and the time that we were in the break room and you climbed up on the lockers.. U silly boy :O)

I am going to miss you so much! But I know that we will see each other again oneday!! Look after us and keep us safe! I Love you and miss you Kurt!

Kurt Bishop =) ..
what to say, what to say? i've met you 3 times and everytime you had me laughing about something. The day at the creek with you and everyone was hilarious.. you kept cracking on Bo! Sorry i made you swim all that way haha. The time i was with you was fun and non-stop laughter. It just really sucks that i was just with you one minute and the next your with God. [your really lucky] I can tell your family loved you alot. We all really miss you. It's just not even real yet.. ut i know you wouldn't want us to be sad, thats why everytime i think about you i'm always smiling because thats what you always made me do. i love you ,

I have been friends with the Bishop family for many years now and of course the first memory that comes to mind is any time I walked through their front door if Kurt was home he was smiling!! Another memory that comes to mind is when me, Cody, Samantha, Jeremy, and the rest of the gang would all be down in the basement in Rusty's room hanging out Kurt would come down and of course be doing something crazy to have us all laughing. He was such a positive energy:) Now all of our loved ones that have already passed on are being entertained by the one and only Kurt Bishop! He was definately one of a kind and he is really going to be missed by many!!!!

Love U Kurt:) Rest In Peace! Lindsey Kerce

the most fun i ever had with kurt was at our brothers wedding. me and kurt were the two that kept getting into trouble becuse we were never serious. everyone kept telling us to stop they said we wouldnt get it right come day of the wedding. but we did and we looked dang good doing it lol. thanks for the memories kurt. gonna miss ya bud

Jennifer Childs <33

Kurt Carson Bishop. I dont know where to begin except to say that you will be missed by everyone. We love you so much. I still remember the first time i saw you was in Mrs. Kings class in the 6th grade and me, you, and Ashley Hopkins all sat in one place everyday...and I shared my gum with you everyday. =] And then you asked me out and we went out for maybe...2 weeks. hahahaha. Then you asked Ashley out. =P Ever since then we been great friends. I rememeber when I like Jamie. hahaha omg. that was...weird. And when me, you, Ashley, Jamie, and Joseph Money went under the bridge close to where Jamie lived and found something and you threw it at Ashley, OMG that was hilarious. I miss those days. You were probably the funniest person ever to be around. You made everyone laugh & knew how to make everyone forget about their problems. It was a unexpected thing that happened, but you know that you will keep an eye on everyone. I love you sweetie and I will miss you soooooooo freakin much. Rest in peace...<333

Shannon Mullinax

Wow i don't know where to begin with the memories i have of you, Dusty, Bo, Jacob and so many of you that I saw grow up together! You were always like my other little brother! Always lookin out for me and making me laugh when things seemed at their worse! Now I'm crying wishing you were here to make me laugh! But I know i will see you again one day in heaven! I still remember sneaking you and Dusty into bars when ya'll were not old enough! Good times! I love you and always know you will forever have a special place in mine, Dusty's and my families heart!

Kay Kay (Simmons) Knight

Thanks for being the cutest guy in my wedding! I have the funniest picture of me, you, Jake and Bo where you are on your knees holding my flowers up to me saying "Marry me and not that idiot." You always knew how to make people laugh. There weren't many times when I came home to visit after I moved to FL where you were not at the house with Jake. I'll always remember you two coming to my house in FL at 3 or 4 am because you didn't want to sleep on the beach or pay for a hotel. LOL. I thought of you as another little brother. I'm really going to miss you sweetie. Love you always! Rest in peace Kurt.

Two roses are positioned in the upper right quadrant of the image. The rose on the left is smaller and more tightly closed, while the one on the right is larger and more open, showing its petals. Both are rendered in a soft, painterly style that blends into the background.

Life Story

every hour, every thought, every smile...

August 15, 1986

Kurt was born in Rome, Georgia on August 15, 1986. He couldn't wait to be born. He was such a sweet baby. His Dad and I prayed for God to give us another child and he gave us such a wonderful gift. Little Kurty! He was very much wanted and loved. Kurt always thought he could do anything his big brother Rusty could do and he pretty much could. He was Rusty's little shadow. They always got along so good. They loved each other very much. His big sister Misty was a little mother to him. She loved to take care of him and Rusty. They had so much love for each other. Kurt was so thrilled when he became an uncle. He loved his nieces, Olivia and Sophie and his nephew Cole very much. They loved him also and could pretty much talk him into anything. Especially the girls. They had him wrapped around their little fingers. Kurt had a heart of gold and would help anyone. He lived life to the fullest every day of his life. We are all so very proud of him. I know he was looking forward to one day getting married and having children. Our hearts ache that he won't get to do that. We will miss that part of his life so very much. He would have been a wonderful husband and dad. He was a wonderful son, brother, grandson, uncle and friend. You were a "Simple Kind of Man" Kurt and didn't need very much to make you happy. We love you and miss you so very much. You will live in our hearts forever. We will never ever forget you!!! All of our love always!

June 30, 2007

Kurt was killed on June 30, 2007 in a horrible motorcycle accident that should have never happened. He was hit from behind and never knew what hit him. We always worried about someone pulling out in front of him but we never even thought about him being hit by someone that was riding with him. We not only lost a son but also lost a future daughter-in-law and grandchildren. Life will never be the same. When you lose someone you love so much it makes the world a much darker place. You look at everything differently. Things that use to be important no longer seem so important. We would give everything we have to have Kurt back. Even the clothes on our backs. We know this can never happen and we will have to live with Kurt in our hearts. We love you Kurt and will never ever forget you ever! Always you loving family.
